

DIXON Engineering & Sales Co.

We are pleased to announce that we have added a new employee who will be our regional manager for North Carolina. His name is Brian Barefoot and he is located in Huntersville, NC. We have known and worked with Brian for more than 20 years. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from University of North Carolina at Charlotte with a BSET degree in Electrical Engineering Technology in 2016. He has owned his own business, Barefoot Technology Services, for 18 years, with a focus on computer hardware and networking technologies. In addition, for the past two years, he was with TDX Technologies supervising IT and network installations around the country.

Brian is married with two teenaged sons. He is an avid sports and technology fan. He is experimenting with his new 3D printer and is very interested in how things work. Brian is looking forward to interacting with all of our NC customer base.

Brian's contact info is:
